UNPLEASANT AT JAMESTOWN

PATRONS OF VIRGINIA TRACK PUT IN AN UN-COMFORTABLE AFTERNOON.

Via Octavia the Only Public Choice to Score-James town Meeting to Come to a Close Saturday-Bad Track in Prospect for Today.

Norfolk, Va., November 14.—Disagreeable weather had its effect on the attendance at the Jamestown track this afternoon. A cold, drizzling rain set in during the afternoon and it made the race course anything but a pleasant spot. Situated as it is on Chesapeake Bay, the Jamestown Jockey Club's plant is greatly exposed to the weather and those present shivered all afternoon and were glad when the afternoon's program came to a close. Those who depend upon public form are finding the Jamestown meeting a hard one. Some of the winners come from the most unexpected quarters and form somersaults bave been frequent. Today Via Octavia was the endy favorite to score. The Belmont youngster, after lareaking well, went to the front and remained there have been frequent. Susan finally made good by winning the second race. Like Via Octavia, Susan led her field all the way, but had to be hard ridden to win by a short head from the fast closing lookin and Trustee. The last named, after getting off slowly and working up on the outside, finished with good speed and was going much the strongest at the end.

The distance of the third race was thought to suit off slowly and working up on the outside, finished with good speed and was going much the strongest at the end.

The distance of the third race was thought to suit king Cobalt, but this old rogue again proved a disappointment and the finish found him last of his field. The whaner turned up in J. H. Houghton, which like Trustee, was forced to work his way on the outside. He was so much the best, however, that he overcame this disadvantage and won going away. Richard E. Watkins, after a long spell of ill luck finally broke the Iree when Lad of Langden was returned winner of the closing race. Like most of the winners during the afternoon, Lad of Langden led from start to finish and had plenty in reserve at the end. It was the first race that Mr. Watkins has won since the fall meeting at Windsor.

As the afternoon progressed the track kept getting more sticky and slippery and it looks as if the going will be deep and heavy tomorrow. Weather forecasts are for more rain, which makes the outlook gloomy. The local element which is patronizing the sport is not quite enthusiastic enough to turn out when conditions are not favorable.

August Belmont and R. T. Wilson, Jr., are expected here this week. The former wrote a horseman here that he would probably be in Norfolk tomorrow. George Miller is endeavoring to purchase Via Octavia and Sandhill from Mr. Belmont and lans offered S3,000 for the pair. The deal may be consummated if Mr. Belmont comes here before the meeting comes to a close.

The Simons, Scully and Heffner horses left yester-day for Jacksonville and others are to follow during the week. Talk of a continuance of the Jamestown meeting is merely idle gossip, as virtually all the horsenen have already arranged to leave here on Sunday next, when a fourieen-car special will depart for Jacksonville and others are to follow during the week. OAKLAND ATTENDANCE IS GOOD.

George Rose and T. H. Williams Have Conference Over Los Angeles Racing.

San Francisco, Cal., November 14.—Enfield found the weight too much to handle in today's handleap at Oakland and finished last. Owing to his victory of Saturday the son of Star Shoot was a well supported favorite. Daddy Gip set the pace and led to the final furiong, when Jack Paine closed with a rush and beat him in a drive, Balronia was third. Fine weather again favored the sport and the attendance was good. Outsiders were again prominent. One of the upsets came in the fifth race, when hovalta, a 25 to 1 chance, led all the way, beating Kaiserhoff and Treasure Seeker. Cabin, the favorite, faitled to show much. Ossabar carried the colors of "Chicago" O'Brien to victory in the first race, leading all the way and romping home in front of Dacia, a well-backed outsider. Tony Faust, quoted at 12 to 1, took the third easily from Madeline Musgrave. Adriniche was the only first choice to score. She won the closing race from Howard Pearson, and E. Carrey bid her up from $400 to $600, but she was retained.

T. Turnmire bought Dacia, Directello and a year-ng by Santello—Sinaloa II. from the Oakwood lock Ranch.

carlings. R. Fleming arrived from Salt Lake City ith Othale and Gelico.

Merudorff brought Hal Worth, Shenandoah and two yearlings, R. Fleming arrived from Salt Lake City with Othale and Gelice.

At the close of the races today George Rose and Thomas II. Williams conferred regarding the advisability of holding a race meeting at Santa Anita after damary 1. The conference was a result of a meeting held at Los Angeles and attended by Mr. Rose, it also a conference was a result of a meeting held at Los Angeles Racing Association. President J. L. Holland and a majority of the directors are in favor of holding a meeting, but Mr. Rose has not be a thoroughly won over to the idea. He declared be a thoroughly won over to the idea. He declared to the Pacific Jockey Club, but after the conference President Williams. No formal application for dates was made to the Pacific Jockey Club, but after the conference President Williams sald he advised against the meeting being held this season.

Mr. Rose said he would communicate with Mr. Holland and give the views of Mr. Williams. It is left that an attempt to hold the meeting at this time might create unfavorable agitation.

Recent arrivals from Vancouver include the Elk Rocke, with Janeta. Incentive and Alder Gulch: E. Mace, with Oscola: A. Levy, with Abihu, and the Glenwood Stable, with Canique.

Gil Summers, who is training the Beckwith Stable, is here from Vallejo with Bishop W., Aliness, Satkass, Jennic Kismet, Ocean View, Juan and a yearling colt by Kismet—Kate Campbell. George Bassett has arrived from Ogden with No Quarter, Swagerlator, Salomy Jane and Ocaiec.

J. A. McGovern, who was formerly associated with O. A. Bianchi, is officiating as patrol judge at the Oakland track.

FIX MONCREIF ADMISSION PRICE.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 14.—The directors of the Florida Live Stock and Agricultural State Fair Association have decided to fix the price of admission for men to the grandstand at Moncreif Park during the coming racing season at $2. The ments are to be made on the field stand, where the stand will be $1 for men and fifty cents for this stand will be $1 for men and fifty cents for rate betting booths.

The horses of the Arlington Stable, which raced at Ogden, have arrived at Jacksonville, decorated the stand will take a string of twelve horses belonging to R. T. Wilson, Jr., to Jacksonville, leaving Norfolk early next week.

Ed Purcell, who has been training bis sprinter, of Nick Stoner, at Sheepshead Bay, has shipped to tions Ensures High-Class Meeting.

clions Ensures High-Class Meeting.

El Paso, Tex., November 14.—General Manager Winn is well pleased with the improvements that have been made about the Juarez track since the close of the last meeting, the completion of 540 new adobe stalls being more pleasing to him than anything else, as this work was the most important undertaken during the summer months. With the completion of the new stalls Terrazas Park will have the distinction of having more stabling room than any track outside of New York, the total number of stalls now at the track being considerably over 1.100. The new stalls are patterned after the old ones, but are somewhat roomler and have the advantage of being built in rows instead of in rectangular fashion.

Already there are over 200 horses stabled at the track awaiting opening day, November 24, and the class of the racers seems to be considerably above that of those that were on the grounds at an earily period last season. Among those already at the track are the horses of W. T. Anderson, twenty-one in number; seventeen horses belonging to San Lazarus, in charge of L. H. Ezell; Powell & Parker, twelve head; R. C. Benson, eleven; W. P. Fine, thirteen; H. R. Brandt, six; Wade McLemore, six, and J. R. Wainwright's horses, numbering thirteen, in charge of Fred Luzader.

Applications for stabling room have been pouring in from all parts of the country, but in most cases they have come from the owners of good horses, the owners of good horses, the owners of the poorer class of horses having evidently decided that the picking would be easier at other tracks.

This, however, does not indicate that the Juarez Jockey Club is going to cater altogether to the better class of horses to the exclusion of the poorer class. It is true that there will be a rich stake run every alternate day of the 100-days meeting, and there will be numerons overnight handicaps to engage the attention of the horses of class, but in addition there will be plenty of races carded for the horses, with less pretension to class, so

Fred Good has sold to his partner, W. G. King-Dodds, his interest in the horses that have been running in the name of Dodds & Good. A. J. Joyner, trainer for H. P. Whitney in England, writes from Ballaton Lodge. Newmarket, that he will not pay America a visit this winter.

Barney Schreiber is expected at Latonia from Woodlands Farm with a carload of yearlings, to be distributed to the various winter racing points. Matt Allen has returned to Gravesend for the winter. His filly, Housemaid, has grown and improved a great deal in looks since she was last seen in action at Saratoga. Mr. Allen has refused $3,000 for the filly.

S. C. Hildreth has concluded to turn out for the winter at his Sheepshead Bay establishment Fitz Herbert, Novelty, Royal Meteor and Rose Queen. Their shoes have been pulled off and they are now romping in the large paddocks adjoining the stable.

The Hamilton Jockey Club is reported to have re-cently paid its first dividend in years and the accu-nulation of profits is said to have been considerable. It is reported that the shareholders received a divi-dend of $710 per share. The profits of the club for the past two years have been especially large, according to report. Jockey Walter Miller, who has been riding in Germany the past season, has returned to his home in New York, looking the picture of health and up to his old riding form, Miller won the most valuable stake run in Germany. He won forty-seven races and likes the German people and the country and will return abroad some time in March.

Keen interest is being taken at Cincinnati in the two-mile handicap to be run at Latonia today on account of the caliber of the horses named to go as contestants. Heretofore races at such distances at Latonia have attracted only selling platers. If the patronage is encouraging the Latonia management will arrange for similar races on a more elaborate scale next season.

Some of the horsemen who have arranged to ship their strings by special train to Florida after the wind-up of the Jamestown meeting next Saturday are A. G. Weston, A. J. Goldsborough, Abe Garson, T. R. Condran, C. K. Moore, S. W. Streett, John W. Pangle, M. Burns, James McLaughlin, J. Burttschell, James Fitzsimmons, Nat Byer, Clint DeWitt, Hugh Penny and P. M. Walker.

MEETING FOR SANTA ANITA.

From Los Angeles comes the report that at a meeting of the directors of the Los Angeles Racing Association held Saturday night, it was decided to apply to the Pacific Jockey Club for dates for a sixty-days meeting at Santa Anita Park beginning in January. The meeting is said to have been attended by George Rose, H. A. Unruh, F. G. Randle and John Brink, the absentees being J. L., Holland, A. W. Hamilton and Barney Schreiber. It is understood that President T. H. Williams of the Pacific Jockey Club is opposed to the re-opening of Santa Anita this season on account of the peculiar conditions prevailing in California.

KOERNER IN GREAT FORM

WINS WITH ALFRED THE GREAT, JOHN REAR-DON AND M. CAMBON.

Unfavorable Weather Fails to Affect the Attendance at Latonia-Jockey Gross Dismissed from Service of R. F. Carman.

Cincinnati, O., November 14.—Today's racing was featured by splendid riding on the part of jockey T. Koorner, who succeeded in winning half the card. He inaugurated his series of successes with Alfred the Great, and then scored in succession on John Reardon and M. Cambon. Cold, disagreeable weather and an ordinary card, as compared with former good offerings, falled to materially decrease the attendance. The sport was interesting, though replete with surprises and marked by several form reversals. The most glaring of these came in the second race, when Heatherbroom spreadeagled her opponents, including Little Father. In a prior start, when ridden by the diminuitye Davies, the Cassatt representative lacked speed and was beaten off. M. Cambon was another winner that had finished last in a preceding start. He was favorite today, stoutly supported by his connections. Ben Trovato, in the closing dash, was another easy victor that showed vast improvement over his former essay. Interference in his last attempt contributed in a good measure to his poor showing on that occasion.

As a result of the poor ride he gave Horizon in her race of Saturday, jockey Gross was today dismissed by R. F. Carman and departed for other fields. The judges were thoroughly dissatisfied with the rider's effort on the filly and had given him, to understand that unless he showed more alertness he would be suspended.

It was stated by trainer Darden after the running of the second-race that Little Father's poor performace was due to the fact that he had wrenched a shoulder shortly after passing the half-mile ground. He will be shipped to Nashville to rest for the winter.

and every where, no matter how insignificant his stable, will be afforded a chance to win a purse.

The question of feed, which forms an important item of every horseman's expense account, has been regulated by the club, and the horsemen will this year be able to procure the best quality of hay and oats at the lowest possible figure.

J. W. May's consignment for Jacksonville for winter racing will consist of twenty-four head, including Countless, Lon Johnson and Monte Preston will ship their horses on Wednesday next to Jacksonville.

There was some disappointment because R. F. Carman at the last moment decided not to enter Bonnie Kelso in the Latonia Endurance Handleap to be run tomorrow. The following quartet of racers are named to go in the $1,500 race: Countless, T. Koerner; Cherryola, Moore; Chas. F. Grainger, J. Deavenport, and Cintrella, T. Davles.

The race is attracting a good deal of attention and should be witnessed by an attendance almost the equal of a Derby Day crowd.

Trainer S. K. Hughes has a yearling in his barn at the Kentucky Association track at Lexington on which he is sweet. The youngster is by St. Lawrence II.—Subdue, by Star Ruby, and is, therefore, a half-brother to G. M. Miller. It is understood a prominent turfman had the refusal of this colt for $2,000 last summer, but neglected to close the trade. Now it is said $5,000 is:asked for him. Mr. Hughes is training him and his owner is a prominent farmer of Woodford County.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

Brilliant riding on the part of T. Koerner at Latonia was the outstanding feature of last week's raichig from the Jockey standpoint. Koerner piloted no less than fourteen winners, which is as good a showing as has been made by any rider on the principal tracks of the country all year. The record of the thirty leaders from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday last is as follows:
